

Our Literacy texts this half term will be...

Harry and the Dinosaurs go to School - Ian Whybrow

Leaf-Man - Lois Ehlert

Owl Babies - Martin Waddell

The Little Red Hen

The Leaf Thief - Alice Hemming

Our phonics this half term will focus on...

- Recap Level 1 phonics skills
- Start Level 2

Our White Rose Maths schemes this half term are...

- Getting to know you
- Match, sort and compare
- It's me! 1,2,3

Our vocab ten

(provocations to develop)

Season	Senses
Harvest	Leaves
Nocturnal	Pumpkin
Habitat	Seed
Crunchy	Change

Top 5 facts

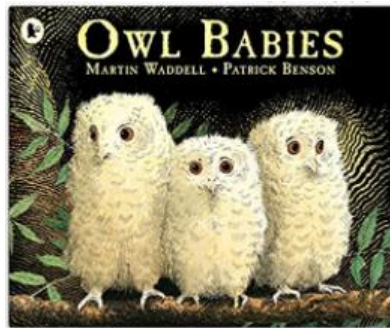

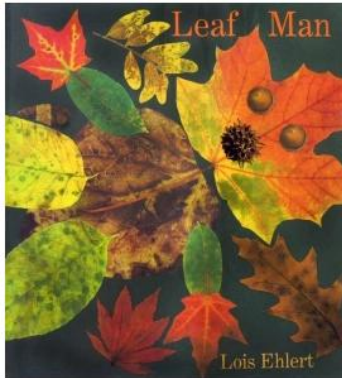

Leaves change colour because they receive less sunlight.

Trees lose their leaves to make sure they survive the winter.

Harvest time is when the farmers gather in their crops.

Owls are nocturnal.

Some animals gather food for the winter in Autumn time.

What's Awesome about Autumn?

Autumn 1

Significant events and people:

Harvest festival is a celebration of food that is grown on the land.

The role of farmers in our society.

Key dates and information:

Harvest festival is normally near the end of September (around the Harvest moon)

Autumn officially begins on Tuesday 23rd September 2026.

Artists to explore:

Leaf Art, Andy Goldsworthy and Lorenzo M.Duran